

Transform a Painting You HATE into one you LOVE!

(and have great fun doing it)

Some days all I do are backgrounds. Those moments of What Now? when I walk away and then come back another day and start over, I discover “Wow Now” are my best paintings.

What Now? To Wow Now!

Transform a so-so Painting to One You Love

Join Eve “Mir” Tidwell
July 17th 2014 10 AM to 2:00 PM
Free Demonstration at 10 am Optional Fee: $25 per person full studio.
Limit to 12 students

For beginners and intermediates painting in Acrylic

*“Everyone is an artist.
What I know is not taught in books.
I will show you that anyone can paint... and transform your so-so canvas in just 3 hours!”*

Each of us has a canvas that we just don't like.
We are not sure why its not our favorite.
Lets take yours from “bow-wow” to a “Wow Now!!”

I'm in...What do I Bring???

Supplies you will need:

One painted canvas that will come one way and leave another! Can be a board or even foam board.
Must already be "painted"...Around two feet by three feet.

NOTE: If you have never painted, go to the thrift store & buy a cheap canvas that is something you don't like.
You will have your own painting by the end of the day.

Food:

We will take two 10 minute breaks and one 30 minute break. Water provided. Snack for break Sack lunch (or order from Cornucopia next door)
Snack to enjoy while we have show and tell.

Paint:

If you are a person that likes bright colors, bring them!
If you are a person that likes dull colors, this class is designed to teach you to love bright colors.

Bring at least 10 colors of acrylic paint:

Brown, black white, yellow orange, red sky blue, lavender greens ( your choice!)

Supplies:

large black magic marker
small black magic marker
gold magic marker
ruler

blue painters tape, two to four inch to protect the frames and if they are not framed to protect the face of you painting when we paint the sides.

At least 8 brushes at least one 2 inch brush holder
bucket for water (Large enough to paint for an hour before cleaning) roll of paper towels

Please bring your own easel, this type of class works best if you can paint standing and look at it from about 6 feet back.
